3. Data processing in connection with MNF Day 2026

a) Scope of data processing

The following personal data is collected and processed in connection with published photos/video recordings on the subject/reason indicated above:

- (1) title
- (2) position
- (3) first and last name

- (4) city
- (5) email address
- (6) research group
- (7) company / affiliation

We further process the following personal data in connection to the production and publication of photos and video recordings with regard to the subject/reason mentioned above:

- (8) media content in which you can be seen and/or heard

b) Purposes of data processing

The personal data listed above is processed in order to carry out and for purpose of public relations to promote the Münster Nanofabrication Facility and future MNF Days.

The personal data listed above may be used for external PR purposes (media, e. g. newspapers, radio and television broadcasters etc.) and internal purposes (e. g. intranet, departmental journals) by employees of the University. Corporate communications consist of both external and internal communication, online communication and social media.

c) Legal basis for processing personal data

If we request your consent to process your personal data, Art. 6 (1 a) of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) serves as the legal basis for processing this data.

If such processing is required to fulfil the terms of a contract of which you are a party, or to meet preliminary contractual obligations conducted on your behalf and at your request, Art. 6 (1 b) GDPR serves as the legal basis for processing this data.

If processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the University of Münster, Art. 6 (1 e) GDPR serves as the legal basis for processing this data.

d) Further recipients of your personal data

Your personal data shall not be forwarded to any further recipients at or outside the University of Münster. However, media content in which you can be seen and/or heard and which will be used for purposes of public relations might be published on WWU's websites and/or in social media channels and can therefore be accessed worldwide.

e) Duration of storage of personal data

Any personal data collected in connection to MNF Day is only stored for as long as it is required for the above mentioned purposes. We will delete your data upon withdrawal of consent. If processing is permitted on the basis of your consent, your personal data is only stored until you revoke your consent, except in cases where processing is governed by a different legal basis. Media contents including photos and video recordings are only stored for as long as it is required for the above-mentioned purposes. We will delete your data upon withdrawal of consent.

4. Your rights as a data subject

Right to rectification and erasure of personal data You have the right to have inaccurate personal data rectified by the controller without undue delay. You have the right to have your personal data erased by the controller without undue delay as soon as the purpose of storage is no longer necessary. In cases where data processing is performed on the basis of your consent, the right to erasure exists if you withdraw your consent and no other legal grounds exist for processing the data.

Your personal data must be erased if you object to the processing in accordance with Art. 21 (1) GDPR and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or if your personal data has been unlawfully processed, or if your personal data must be erased in order to comply with a legal requirement mandated by an EU or member state law, to which the University of Münster is subject.

The right to erasure as put forth in the cases stated above does not apply, however, if it would hinder compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by European Union or member state law, to which the University of Münster is subject, or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the University of Münster, or if extended storage is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Right to withdrawal

If permission to process personal data is granted by your consent, you may withdraw your consent at any time. All processing of personal data performed prior to withdrawal remains lawful irrespective of withdrawal.

Right to information

You have the right to obtain confirmation from the University of Münster whether it is processing any personal data related to you. If such is the case, you have a right to information regarding the type of personal data and the purpose for which it is being processed. You also have the right to obtain information on the duration of the planned storage of the data, or on the criteria for determining how long the data is to be stored.

Right to raise an objection with the supervisory authority

You also have the right to raise an objection with the supervisory authority. The responsible supervisory authority is: Landesbeauftragte für Datenschutz und Informationsfreiheit Nordrhein-Westfalen, Postfach 20 04 44, 40102 Düsseldorf, Germany, tel.: +49 211 38424-0, email: poststelle@ldi.nrw.de
